

Cutting the Ties That Bind

"Cutting the Ties That Bind" is a six-week course of profound clearing work with great depth and simplicity. It enables a person to become liberated as an independent and whole person, relying on their inner source of security and wisdom rather than the false and binding security of old attachments and patterns.

We can detach ourselves from false and negative controlling factors such as parents, teachers, family members, partners, and friends; as well as material objects such as money, jobs, and cars, etc. Also from various addictions, bad habits, negative emotions, religious or cultural influences and inherited characteristics. You can never cut from love and the 'cutting' work only strengthens it.

How does it work?

This technique primarily uses the language of the subconscious mind that is comprised of symbols and pictures. A symbol is a device by which a message is carried effectively to the subconscious part of the mind. The work is extremely effective done individually or in a group. Because of group energy, the amount of time normally taken to do this work is condensed greatly.

What are the Potential Benefits?

- ❖ The unwanted ties are cut, clearing the negativity and freeing us to experience more love. We cannot and do not cut from love!
- ❖ Fears that rule your life can be eliminated.
- ❖ When we change, those around us appear to change as well. We experience things differently and begin to use our own wisdom and inner knowing as a guide.
- ❖ Relationships around us improve as we let go of the old conflicting patterns of behavior. Results can be immediate, profound and ongoing.
- ❖ This methodology gives you a life long tool to work with. The techniques you learn can be used on an on-going basis.
- ❖ It is vast in its application and can be applied to anyone and anything. Practitioners in energy and a counseling practice can utilize this technique with clients.
- ❖ As the simple technique is practiced, layers of attachments and patterns are immediately uncovered and finally understood and released.
